DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-65, drawn to a pharmaceutical composition and methods of preparing or administering said composition classified in class 424, subclass 489.
 - II. Claims 66-72, drawn to a method of administering a nerve block, classified in class 424, subclass 484.
 - III. Claims 73-79, drawn to a method of immunizing an individual, classified in class 424, subclass 130.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case a nerve block can be administered using a different composition, such as a cyclodextrin complex.
3. Inventions III and I are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP

Art Unit: 1615

§ 806.05(h)). In the instant case immunization can be performed using a different pharmaceutical composition, such as a recombinant vaccine.

4. Inventions III and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different modes of operation and different effects, as the method of invention II causes nerve blockage and the method of invention III is directed to immunization of an individual.

5. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the lipid in the claimed invention:

- a. naturally occurring lipid
- b. emulsifier
- c. surfactant
- d. positively charged lipid
- e. negatively charged lipid.
- f. lipid with no charge
- g. phosphatidylcholine
- h. dipalmitoylphosphatidylcholine
- i. polyvinyl alcohol
- j. phospholipid
- k. derivatized lipid

Art Unit: 1615

6. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the protein in the claimed invention:

- a. albumin
- b. whole cell extract
- c. antibody
- d. enzyme
- e. glucose oxidase
- f. insulin

7. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the sugar in the claimed invention:

- a. lactose
- b. cellulose
- c. modified sugar
- d. glycosaminoglycan
- e. dextran
- f. chemically modified dextran
- g. chondroitin sulfate
- h. chemically modified sugar

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-17 and 47-79 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1615

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
